similarly situated, by and through her undersigned counsel, hereby sues Defendant Wholesome Story, LLC ("Defendant") and, upon information and belief and investigation of counsel, alleges as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Mika Kodaira ("Plaintiff"), on behalf of herself and all others

- 1. Defendant makes, distributes, sells, and markets a wide variety of dietary supplements under the brand name Wholesome Story. The products at issue include the following, in any size, count, or variation:
 - Wholesome Story Spearmint 1000 mg;
 - Wholesome Story Inositol (Myo-Inositol) 2000 mg;
 - Wholesome Story Melatonin 10 mg;
 - Wholesome Story Berberine 1500 mg; and
- Wholesome Story Women's Probiotic & Postbiotic 20 Billion CFU (collectively, the "Products").
- 2. Defendant deceptively labels the Products by misrepresenting the dosage amount of each vegetarian capsule. Specifically, the front labels of the Wholesome Story Products prominently advertise a certain dosage amount, for example, "1000 mg." The front labels also advertise the number of capsules included in each Product, for example, 90 vegetarian capsules. Reasonable consumers are led to believe that each capsule contains the advertised dosage amount, for example, 1000 mg of spearmint in each capsule.
- 3. The truth, however, is that each capsule does not contain the advertised dosage amount. Instead, each capsule contains only a fraction of the advertised dosage and consumers must ingest two, three, or four capsules to achieve the advertised dosage. As a result, consumers grossly overpay for the Products, receiving only half, a third, or a quarter of the advertised value while paying the full purchase price.
 - 4. Plaintiff read and relied upon Defendant's advertising when purchasing the Wholesome Story Spearmint 1000 mg product and was damaged as a result.

- 5. Plaintiff brings this action on behalf of herself and all other similarly situated consumers in the United States, alleging violations of the California Consumer Legal Remedies Act, Cal. Civ. Code §§ 1750 et seq. ("CLRA"), Unfair Competition Law, Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200 et seq. ("UCL"), and False Advertising Law, §§ 17500 et seq. ("FAL"). Plaintiff brings further causes of action for breach of express and implied warranties, negligent misrepresentation, intentional misrepresentation/fraud, and quasi-contract/unjust enrichment.
- 6. Plaintiff seeks an order compelling Defendant to (a) cease marketing the Products using the misleading and unlawful tactics complained of herein, (b) destroy all misleading deceptive, and unlawful materials, (c) conduct a corrective advertising campaign, (d) restore the amounts by which it has been unjustly enriched, and (e) pay restitution damages and punitive damages, as allowed by law.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- 7. This Court has original jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2) (The Class Action Fairness Act) because the matter in controversy exceeds the sum or value of $5,000,000 exclusive of interest and costs and because more than two-thirds of the members of the Class reside in states other than the state of which Defendant is a citizen.
- 8. The court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant. Defendant purposely availed itself to California because Defendant does business within this judicial district, sells the Products in this judicial district, and is committing the acts complained of below within this judicial district.
- 9. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because the injury in this case substantially occurred in this District. Defendant has intentionally availed itself of the laws and markets of this District through the promotion, marketing, distribution, and sale of the Products in this District, and is subject to personal jurisdiction in this District.

PARTIES

III.

10. Defendant Wholesome Story, LLC is a Nevada limited liability company with a principal place of business located in Las Vegas, NV. Defendant makes, labels, distributes, sells, and markets Wholesome Story branded products throughout the United States and in California. Defendant is responsible for the making, labeling, distribution, selling, and marketing of the Products throughout the applicable statute of limitations period.

11. Plaintiff Mika Kodaira ("Plaintiff") is a resident of California and purchased the Wholesome Story Spearmint 1000 mg product in 2023. Plaintiff saw the misrepresentations made on the Product label prior to and at the time of purchase and understood them as representations and warranties that each unit of the product contained the advertised dosage amount. Plaintiff relied on the representations made on the Product's label in deciding to purchase the Product. These representations and warranties were part of her basis of the bargain, in that she would not have purchased the Product, or would only have been willing to purchase the Product at a lower price, had she known the representations were false. Plaintiff would consider purchasing the Product again if the advertising statements made on the Product labels were, in fact, truthful and represented in a manner as not to deceive consumers.

IV. NATURE OF THE ACTION

- 12. Defendant sells the following Wholesome Story branded products with misleading dosage representations on the Product packaging and labels:
 - Wholesome Story Spearmint 1000 mg Three (3) capsules are required to achieve the advertised dosage of 1,000 mg.
 - Wholesome Story Inositol (Myo-Inositol) 2000 mg Four (4) capsules are required to achieve the advertised dosage of 2,000 mg.
 - Wholesome Story Melatonin 10 mg Two (2) capsules are required to achieve the advertised dosage of 10 mg.
 - Wholesome Story Berberine 1500 mg Three (3) capsules are required to achieve the advertised dosage of 1,500 mg.

- Wholesome Story Women's Probiotic & Postbiotic 20 Billion CFU
 Two (2) capsules are required to achieve the advertised dosage of 20 Billion CFU.
- 13. The Products' front labels and supplement facts are shown below:

Wholesome Story Spearmint 1000 mg

Wholesome Story Inositol (Myo-Inositol) 2000 mg

- 14. Defendant's dosing representations are prominently and conspicuously displayed to grab the consumer's attention.
- 15. Contrary to the prominently advertised dosage amount on each of the Products' labels, each capsule contains only a fraction of the advertised dosage amount. For example, consumers must ingest three (3) capsules of the Wholesome Story Spearmint 1000 mg product to achieve the advertised dosage of 1000 mg. Consumers must ingest four (4) capsules of the Wholesome Story Inositol 2000 mg product to achieve the advertised dosage of 2000 mg. This leads consumers to overpay for the Products by a significant margin.
- 16. Defendant's advertising misleads reasonable consumers into believing that each capsule unit contains the advertised dosage. However, contrary to the labeling, each unit only contains a fraction of the advertised dosage. Consequently, reasonable consumers believe that they are receiving two or more times the amount of dietary supplement per Product than what they are actually receiving. As a result, Defendant has charged consumers a premium for the Products, while cutting costs and reaping the financial benefits of selling dietary supplements with less than the advertised dosage in each Product.
- 17. The label misrepresentations are material to reasonable consumers, including Plaintiff. The dosage representations (number of milligrams) and unit representations (number of capsules) convey the type and amount of dietary supplement provided by the Products, and the primary purpose of the Products is to provide the amount of dietary supplement advertised by the Product labels. Accordingly, reasonable consumers are likely to be deceived by the Products' labels.

DEMAND FOR DIETARY SUPPLEMENTS AND THE COMPETITIVE MARKET

18. Over the past 20 years, there has been a significant increase in the prevalence of supplement use. The dietary supplement market has been growing in terms of sales and products available on the market. Consumers are being presented a large number of products, brands, and formulations, distributed through a wide variety of marketing channels. The value of the global dietary supplements market was estimated to be worth nearly USD 152 billion in 2021, and is expected to be worth USD 300 billion by 2028.1

- 19. In response to consumers' desire for dietary supplements, many companies, like Defendant, have scrambled to manufacture, market, and sell purportedly high dosages, at the same or lower costs, in an effort to gain market share and outsell competitors. Unfortunately, rather than creating the actual high dosage dietary supplements that consumers desire, Defendant makes products with lower dosages than is advertised on the Products' packaging and front labels, and then markets them to consumers through deceptive labeling and packaging claims. In doing so, Defendant misleads consumers into believing that the Products contain higher dosages in each capsule than what is actually contained therein.
- Defendant's competitors correctly label and sell their products to show 20. the correct dosage information on the products' front labels. They do so by specifying on the front label the amount of supplement per capsule unit. For example, the Best Naturals Berberine 500 mg product contains exactly what it says: berberine capsules each containing 500 mg of berberine.

21. Alternatively, Defendant's competitors disclose on their products' front labels that the advertised dosage amount does not apply per capsule, and instead applies "per serving." For example, Luma Nutrition's Berberine 1200 mg product specifies that the product contains 1,200 mg of berberine "per serving" and not per capsule.

22. By falsely, misleadingly, and deceptively labeling and advertising the Products, Defendant sought an unfair advantage over its lawfully acting competitors.

PLAINTIFF'S PURCHASES, RELIANCE, AND INJURY

- 23. Plaintiff purchased the Wholesome Story Spearmint 1000 mg product in 2023 in reliance on the Product's front label advertising.
- 24. In deciding to purchase the Product, Plaintiff read and relied on the dosage information displayed on the front label, which led Plaintiff to believe that each unit in the product contained the advertised dosage 1000 mg of spearmint per capsule. At the time of purchase, Plaintiff did not know that the advertised dosage was false and misleading, and that more than one capsule would need to be consumed to receive the advertised dosage.
- 25. Plaintiff would not have purchased the Product, or would not have paid as much as she did for it, had she known that each capsule contained only a fraction of the advertised dosage. Plaintiff paid a premium for the Product due to the misleading labelling on the Product's packaging.
 - 26. The representations on the Products' label were and are false and

- misleading, and had the capacity, tendency, and likelihood to confuse or confound Plaintiff and other consumers acting reasonably (including the putative Class) because, as described in detail herein, the Product labels misrepresent the dosage of each capsule.
- 27. Plaintiff and Class Members acted reasonably in relying on the challenged claims that Defendant intentionally, prominently, and uniformly placed on the Products' label and packaging with the intent to induce average consumers into purchasing them.
- 28. Plaintiff, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, could not have discovered earlier Defendant's unlawful acts described herein because the violations were known to Defendant, and not to her throughout the Class Period herein.
- 29. Plaintiff paid more for the Product, and would only have been willing to pay less or unwilling to purchase it at all, absent the false and misleading labeling statements complained of herein.
- 30. For these reasons, the Product was worth less than what Plaintiff paid for it.
- 31. Plaintiff would like to, and would consider, purchasing the Products again when she can do so with the assurance that the Products' labels are truthful and consistent with the Products' actual ingredients.
- 32. Plaintiff will be unable to rely on the Products' advertising or labeling in the future, and so will not purchase the Products again although she would like to.
- 33. Plaintiff lost money as a result of Defendant's deceptive claims and practices in that she did not receive what she paid for when purchasing the Product.
- 34. Plaintiff detrimentally altered her position and suffered damages in an amount equal to the premium she paid for the Product.
- 35. The senior officers and directors of Defendant allowed the Products to be sold with full knowledge or reckless disregard that the challenged claims are fraudulent, unlawful, and misleading.

- 36. Defendant's Wholesome Story Products described herein are substantially similar, as they each contain (1) a dosage and unit representation conspicuously and prominently placed on the primary display panel of the Products' front labels, and (2) require consumption of two or more units to obtain the advertised dosage.
- 37. The misleading advertising on the Products' front labels are all the same: consumers are led to believe that each capsule contains the advertised dosage amount; however, the Products only contain half, a third, or a quarter of the dosage amount advertised. Consumers therefore only receive half, a third, or a quarter of the amount of dietary supplement promised and pay more than what the Products would be worth had Defendant's advertising been true.

NO ADEQUATE REMEDY AT LAW

- 38. Plaintiff seeks damages and, in the alternative, equitable restitution. Plaintiff and members of the class are entitled to equitable relief as no adequate remedy at law exists.
- 39. The statutes of limitations for the causes of action pled herein vary. Class members who purchased the Products more than three years prior to the filing of the complaint will be barred from recovery if equitable relief were not permitted under the UCL.
- 40. The scope of actionable misconduct under the unfair prong of the UCL is also broader than the other causes of action asserted herein. It includes Defendant's overall unfair marketing scheme to promote and brand the Products over a long period of time in order to gain an unfair advantage over competitor products. The UCL also creates a cause of action for violations of law (such as statutory or regulatory requirements and court orders related to similar representations and omissions made on the type of products at issue). This is especially important here because Plaintiff alleges Defendant has committed "unlawful" acts and brings a claim for violation of the UCL's "unlawful prong." Plaintiff's UCL unlawful prong claim does not rest on the same conduct as her other causes of action, and there is no adequate remedy at law for this specific unlawful claim. Plaintiff and class members may also be entitled to restitution under the UCL, while not entitled to damages under other causes of action asserted herein (e.g., the FAL requires actual or constructive knowledge of the falsity; the CLRA is limited to certain types of plaintiffs (an individual who seeks or acquires, by purchase or lease, any goods or services for personal, family, or household purposes) and other statutorily enumerated conduct).

Injunctive relief is appropriate on behalf of Plaintiff and members of 41. the class because Defendant continues to omit material facts about the Products. Injunctive relief is necessary to prevent Defendant from continuing to engage in the unfair, fraudulent, and/or unlawful conduct described herein and to prevent future harm—none of which can be achieved through available legal remedies (such as monetary damages to compensate past harm). Injunctive relief, in the form of affirmative disclosures is necessary to dispel the public misperception about the Products that has resulted from years of Defendant's unfair, fraudulent, and unlawful marketing efforts. Such disclosures would include, but are not limited to, publicly disseminated statements that the Products' labeling misrepresentations are untrue and providing accurate information about the Products' true nature; and/or requiring prominent disclaimers on the Products' front labels concerning the Products' true nature. An injunction requiring affirmative disclosures to dispel the public's misperception, and prevent the ongoing deception, is also not available through a legal remedy (such as monetary damages). In addition, Plaintiff is currently unable to accurately quantify the damages caused by Defendant's future harm, because discovery and Plaintiff's investigation have not yet completed, rendering injunctive relief necessary. Further, because a public injunction is available under the UCL, damages will not adequately benefit the general public in a manner equivalent to an injunction.

- 42. Moreover, a legal remedy is not adequate if it is not as certain as an equitable remedy. Here, Plaintiff may lack an adequate remedy at law if, for instance, damages resulting from her purchases of the Products are determined to be an amount less than the premium price of the Products. Without compensation for the full premium price of the Products, Plaintiff and class members would be left without the parity in purchasing power to which they are entitled.
- 43. By the same token, Plaintiff's common law claims require additional showings, compared to the UCL, FAL, or unjust enrichment claims. For example, to prevail on a breach of warranty claim, Plaintiff must show that the challenged statements constitute a warranty and that the warranty was part of the basis of the bargain. No such showings are required by the UCL or FAL, or for an unjust enrichment theory. In fact, the UCL and the FAL were enacted specifically to create new claims and remedies not available at common law. And unjust enrichment exists in part because contractual claims are often more difficult to establish. In this way, Plaintiff's UCL and FAL claims, and Plaintiff's unjust enrichment claims, are more certain than their legal claims.
- 44. It is premature to determine whether an adequate remedy at law exists. This is an initial pleading and discovery has not yet commenced and/or is at its initial stages. No class has been certified yet. No expert discovery has commenced and/or completed. The completion of fact/non-expert and expert discovery, as well as the certification of this case as a class action, are necessary to finalize and determine the adequacy and availability of all remedies, including legal and equitable, for Plaintiff's individual claims and any certified class or subclass. Plaintiff therefore reserves her right to amend this complaint and/or assert additional facts that demonstrate this Court's jurisdiction to order equitable remedies where no adequate legal remedies are available for either Plaintiff and/or any certified class or subclass. Such proof, to the extent necessary, will be presented prior to the trial of any equitable claims for relief and/or the entry of an order granting equitable relief.

V. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

45. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, Plaintiff seeks certification of the following Classes (or alternative Classes or Subclasses):

The Nationwide Class

All persons who purchased the Products in the United States for personal and household use and not for resale within the applicable statute of limitations and until the date class notice is disseminated.

The California Subclass

All persons who purchased the Products in California for personal and household use and not for resale within the applicable statute of limitations and until the date class notice is disseminated.

- 46. The Classes and Subclasses described in this complaint will jointly be referred to the "Class" or the "Classes" unless otherwise stated, and the proposed members of the Classes and Subclasses will jointly be referred to as "Class Members."
- 47. Plaintiff and the Class reserve their right to amend or modify the Class definitions with greater specificity or further division into subclasses or limitation to particular issues as discovery and the orders of this Court warrant.
- 48. Excluded from the Class are governmental entities, Defendant, any entity in which Defendant has a controlling interest, Defendant's employees, officers, directors, legal representatives, heirs, successors and wholly or partly owned subsidiaries or affiliated companies, including all parent companies, and their employees; and the judicial officers, their immediate family members and court staff assigned to this case.
- 49. The members in the proposed Class are so numerous that individual joinder of all members is impracticable. Due to the nature of the trade and commerce involved, however, Plaintiff believes the total number of Class members is at least in the hundreds and members of the Classes are numerous. While the exact number and identities of the Class members are unknown at this time, such information can be ascertained through appropriate investigation and discovery. The disposition of the claims of the Class members in a single class action will provide substantial benefits to all parties and to the Court.

- 50. Pursuant to Rule 23(b)(2), Defendant has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Classes, thereby making final injunctive relief or corresponding declaratory relief and damages as to the Products appropriate with respect to the Classes as a whole. In particular, Defendant has failed to disclose the true nature of the Products being marketed as described herein.
- There is a well-defined community of interest in the questions of law 51. and fact involved, affecting the Plaintiff and the Classes and these common questions of fact and law include, but are not limited to, the following:
 - Whether Defendant breached any express warranties made to Plaintiff and the Class;
 - Whether Defendant breached any implied warranties made to Plaintiff and the Class;
 - Whether Defendant violated consumer protection statutes, false advertising statutes, or state deceptive business practices statutes;
 - Whether Defendant engaged, and continues to engage, in unfair or deceptive acts and practices in connection with the marketing, advertising, and sales of the Products;
 - Whether reasonable consumers are likely to be misled by Defendant's advertising and labeling of the Products;
 - Whether the Products' challenged representations are material representations made to reasonable consumers;
 - Whether the proposed class is suitable for class certification;
 - The proper amount of restitution, damages, and punitive damages;

- The proper injunctive relief, including a corrective advertising campaign;
- The proper amount of attorneys' fees.
- 52. These common questions of law and fact predominate over questions that affect only individual Class Members.
- 53. Plaintiff's claims are typical of Class Members' claims because they are based on the same underlying facts, events, and circumstances relating to Defendant's conduct. Specifically, all Class Members, including Plaintiff, were subjected to the same misleading and deceptive conduct when they purchased the Products, and suffered economic injury because the Products were and still are misrepresented. Absent Defendant's business practice of deceptively and unlawfully labeling the Products, Plaintiff and Class Members would not have purchased the Products, or would have paid less for them.
- 54. Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the Classes, has no interests incompatible with the interests of the Classes, and has retained counsel with substantial experience in handling complex consumer class action litigation. Plaintiff and her counsel are committed to vigorously prosecuting this action on behalf of the Classes and have the financial resources to do so.
- 55. Plaintiff and the members of the Classes suffered, and will continue to suffer harm as a result of Defendant's unlawful and wrongful conduct. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the present controversy. Individual joinder of all members of the Classes is impracticable. Even if individual Class members had the resources to pursue individual litigation, it would be unduly burdensome to the courts in which the individual litigation would proceed. Individual litigation magnifies the delay and expense to all parties in the court system of resolving the controversies engendered by Defendant's common course of conduct. The class action device allows a single court to provide the benefits of unitary adjudication, judicial economy, and the fair and efficient handling of all Class members' claims in a single forum. The conduct of this action as a class action conserves the resources of the parties and of the judicial system and protects the rights of the class members. Furthermore, for many, if not most, a class action is the only feasible mechanism that allows an opportunity for legal redress and justice.

- 56. Adjudication of individual Class members' claims with respect to Defendant would, as a practical matter, be dispositive of the interests of other members not parties to the adjudication, and could substantially impair or impede the ability of other class members to protect their interests.
- 57. Defendant has acted on grounds applicable to the Class, thereby making appropriate final public injunctive and declaratory relief concerning the Class as a whole.
 - 58. As a result of the foregoing, class treatment is appropriate.

VI. CAUSES OF ACTION FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violations of the Unfair Competition Law, Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200 et seq.

(on behalf of the California Class)

- 59. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates the allegations elsewhere in the Complaint as if set forth in full herein.
- 60. California's Unfair Competition Law, Business and Professions Code §17200 (the UCL") prohibits any "unfair, deceptive, untrue or misleading advertising." For the reasons discussed above, Defendant has engaged in unfair, deceptive, untrue and misleading advertising, and continues to engage in such business conduct, in violation of the UCL.
- 61. California's Unfair Competition Law ("UCL"), Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17200, et seq., proscribes acts of unfair competition, including "any unlawful, unfair or fraudulent business act or practice and unfair, deceptive, untrue or misleading advertising."

Fraudulent

- 62. A statement or practice is "fraudulent" under the UCL if it is likely to mislead or deceive the public, applying an objective reasonable consumer test.
- 63. As set forth herein, Defendant's claims relating to the Products are likely to mislead reasonable consumers to believe that each capsule unit in the Products contained the dosage amount advertised on the Products' front labels.
- 64. Defendant's conduct caused and continues to cause substantial injury to Plaintiff and the other Class members. Plaintiff has suffered injury in fact as a result of Defendant's unfair conduct. Defendant has thus engaged in unlawful, unfair and fraudulent business acts and practices and false advertising, entitling Plaintiff and the Class to public injunctive relief against Defendant, as set forth in the Prayer for Relief.
- 65. Pursuant to Business and Professions Code § 17203, Plaintiff and the Class seek an order requiring Defendant to immediately cease such acts of unlawful, unfair and fraudulent business practices and requiring Defendant to engage in a corrective advertising campaign.
- 66. Plaintiff also seeks an order for the disgorgement and restitution of the premium received from the sale of the Products the Class Members purchased, which was unjustly acquired through acts of unlawful, unfair, and/or fraudulent competition, and attorneys' fees and costs.

Unlawful

- 67. The acts alleged herein are "unlawful" under the UCL in that they violate at least the following laws:
 - By knowingly and intentionally concealing from Plaintiff and the other Class members that each unit of the Products did not contain the advertised dosage;
 - By misrepresenting the dosage of the Products on the front label;

- By engaging in the conduct giving rise to the claims asserted in this complaint;
- By violating California Civil Code §§ 1709-1711 by making affirmative misrepresentations about the Products;
- By violating California Civil Code §§ 1709-1711 by suppressing material information about the Products;
- By violating the California Commercial Code for breaches of express and implied warranties;
- By violating California's Sherman Act, Cal. Health & Safety Code § 110390, which prohibits drug and cosmetics labelling that is "false or misleading in any particular";
- By violating the False Advertising Law, Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17500 et seq.;
- By violating the Consumers Legal Remedies Act, Cal. Civ. Code §§ 1750 et seq.
- 68. Such conduct is ongoing and continues to this date.
- 69. Plaintiff and the Class reserve the right to allege other violations of law, which constitute other unlawful business acts or practices.

Unfair

70. Defendant's acts, omissions, misrepresentations, practices and nondisclosures as alleged herein also constitute "unfair" business acts and practices within the meaning of the UCL in that its conduct is substantially injurious to consumers, offends public policy, and is immoral, unethical, oppressive, and unscrupulous as the gravity of the conduct outweighs any alleged benefits attributable to such conduct. In the alternative, Defendant's business conduct as described herein violates relevant laws designed to protect consumers and businesses from unfair competition in the marketplace. Such conduct is ongoing and continues to date.

- 71. Defendant's conduct with respect to the labeling, advertising, and sale of the Products was and is also unfair because it violates public policy as declared by specific constitutional, statutory or regulatory provisions, including but not limited to the Consumers Legal Remedies Act, the False Advertising Law, and portions of the California Sherman Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Law.
- 72. Defendant's conduct with respect to the labeling, advertising, and sale of the Products was and is also unfair because the consumer injury was substantial, not outweighed by benefits to consumers or competition, and not one consumers themselves could reasonably have avoided.
- 73. Defendant profited from its sale of the falsely, deceptively, and unlawfully advertised and packaged Products to unwary consumers.
- 74. Plaintiff and Class Members are likely to continue to be damaged by Defendant's deceptive trade practices, because Defendant continues to disseminate misleading information on the Products' packaging. Thus, public injunctive relief enjoining Defendant's deceptive practices is proper.
- 75. There were reasonably available alternatives to further Defendant's legitimate business interests, other than the conduct described herein.
- 76. Class-wide reliance can be inferred because Defendant's misrepresentations were material, i.e., a reasonable consumer would consider them important in deciding whether to buy the Products.
- 77. Defendant's misrepresentations were a substantial factor and proximate cause in causing damages and losses to Plaintiff and Class members.
- 78. Plaintiff and the Classes were injured as a direct and proximate result of Defendant's conduct because (a) they would not have purchased the Products if they had known the truth and (b) they overpaid for the Products because the Products are sold at a price premium due to the misrepresentations.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Violations of the False Advertising Law,

Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 17500 et seq. (on behalf of the California Class)

- 79. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates the allegations elsewhere in the Complaint as if set forth herein.
- 80. The FAL provides that "[i]t is unlawful for any person, firm, corporation or association, or any employee thereof with intent directly or indirectly to dispose of real or personal property or to perform services" to disseminate any statement "which is untrue or misleading, and which is known, or which by the exercise of reasonable care should be known, to be untrue or misleading" Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17500.
- 81. It is also unlawful under the FAL to disseminate statements concerning property or services that are "untrue or misleading, and which is known, or which by the exercise of reasonable care should be known, to be untrue or misleading." Id.
- 82. As alleged herein, Defendant falsely advertised the Products by falsely representing that each unit of the Products contained the advertised dosage, when in fact, a consumer would need to take two units to achieve the advertised dosage.
- 83. Plaintiff has standing to pursue this claim as Plaintiff has suffered injury in fact as a result of Defendant's actions as set forth herein. Specifically, prior to the filing of this action, Plaintiff purchased the Products in reliance on Defendant's false and misleading labeling claims that each unit of the Products contained the advertised dosage.
- 84. Defendant's business practices as alleged herein constitute deceptive, untrue, and misleading advertising pursuant to the FAL because Defendant has advertised the Products in a manner that is untrue and misleading, which Defendant knew or reasonably should have known, and omitted material information from its advertising.
- 85. Defendant profited from its sale of the falsely and deceptively advertised Products to unwary consumers.

- 86. As a result, Plaintiff, the Class, and the general public are entitled to public injunctive and equitable relief, restitution, and an order for the disgorgement of the funds by which Defendant was unjustly enriched.
- 87. Pursuant to Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17535, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and the Classes, seeks an order enjoining Defendant from continuing to engage in deceptive business practices, false advertising, and any other act prohibited by law, including those set forth herein.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Violations of the Consumer Legal Remedies Act,

Cal. Civ. Code §§ 1750 et seq.

(on behalf of the California Class)

- 88. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates the allegations elsewhere in the Complaint as if set forth in full herein.
- 89. The CLRA prohibits deceptive practices in connection with the conduct of a business that provides goods, property, or services primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.
- 90. Defendant's false and misleading labeling and other policies, acts, and practices were designed to, and did, induce the purchase and use of the Products for personal, family, or household purposes by Plaintiff and Class Members, and violated and continue to violate the following sections of the CLRA:
 - § 1770(a)(5): Representing that goods have characteristics, uses, or benefits which they do not have;
 - § 1770(a)(7): Representing that goods are of a particular standard, quality, or grade if they are of another; and
 - § 1770(a)(9): Advertising goods or services with intent not to sell them as advertised.
- 91. Defendant profited from the sale of the falsely, deceptively, and unlawfully advertised Products to unwary consumers.

- 92. Defendant's wrongful business practices constituted, and constitute, a continuing course of conduct in violation of the CLRA.
- 93. Pursuant to California Civil Code section 1782(d), Plaintiff and the members of the Class seek an order enjoining Defendant from engaging in the methods, acts, and practices alleged herein.
- 94. Pursuant to California Civil Code section 1782, Plaintiff notified Defendant in writing by certified mail of the alleged violations of the CLRA and demanded that Defendant rectify the problems associated with the actions detailed above and give notice to all affected consumers of its intent to so act.
- 95. More than thirty days has passed since Plaintiff sent Defendant a CLRA letter and Defendant has failed to take the corrective action described in Plaintiff's letter. Wherefore, Plaintiff seeks actual, punitive, and statutory damages as appropriate, as well as attorneys' fees and costs for Defendant's violations of the CLRA.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Breach of Express Warranties,

Cal. Com. Code § 2313(1)

- 96. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates the allegations elsewhere in the Complaint as if set forth in full herein.
- 97. Through the Products' labels and advertising, Defendant made affirmations of fact or promises, or description of goods, described above, which were "part of the basis of the bargain," in that Plaintiff and the Class purchased the Products in reasonable reliance on those statements. Cal. Com. Code § 2313(1).
- 98. The foregoing representations were material and were a substantial factor in causing the harm suffered by Plaintiff and the Class because they concerned the allegation that Defendant misrepresented the dosage of each unit of the Products.
 - 99. These representations had an influence on consumers' decisions in purchasing the Products.

- 100. Defendant made the above representations to induce Plaintiff and the members of Class to purchase the Products. Plaintiff and the Class members relied on the representations when purchasing Defendant's Products.
- 101. Defendant breached the express warranties by selling Products with false and misleading advertised dosage amounts.
- 102. That breach actually and proximately caused injury in the form of the price premium that Plaintiff and Class members paid for the Products.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Breach of Implied Warranties

Cal. Com. Code § 2314

- 103. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates the allegations elsewhere in the Complaint as if set forth in full herein.
- 104. Defendant, through its acts and omissions set forth herein, in the sale, marketing, and promotion of the Products, misrepresented the dosage amount of the Products to Plaintiff and the Class.
- 105. Plaintiff and the Class purchased the Products manufactured, advertised, and sold by Defendant, as described herein.
- 106. Defendant is a merchant with respect to the goods of this kind which were sold to Plaintiff and the Class, and there was, in the sale to Plaintiff and other consumers, an implied warranty that those goods were merchantable.
- 107. However, Defendant breached that implied warranty in that the Products did not contain the represented dosage in each unit of the Products, and instead, consumers must ingest multiple capsules to achieve the advertised dosage.
- 108. As an actual and proximate result of Defendant's conduct, Plaintiff and the Class did not receive goods as impliedly warranted by Defendant to be merchantable in that the Products did not conform to promises and affirmations made on the label of the Products.

109. Plaintiff and the Class have sustained damages as a proximate result of the foregoing breach of implied warranty in the amount of the Products' price premium.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Misrepresentation

- 110. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates the allegations elsewhere in the Complaint as if set forth in full herein.
- 111. Defendant had a duty to disclose to Plaintiff and Class Members correct information as to the quality and characteristics of the Products because Defendant was in a superior position than Plaintiff and Class Members such that reliance by Plaintiff and Class Members was justified. Defendant possessed the skills and expertise to know the type of information that would influence a consumer's purchasing decision.
- 112. During the applicable Class period, Defendant negligently or carelessly misrepresented, omitted, and concealed from consumers material facts regarding the quality and characteristics of the Products, including the amount of dietary supplement contained in each capsule.
- 113. Defendant made such false and misleading statements and omissions with the intent to induce Plaintiff and Class Members to purchase the Products at a premium price.
- 114. Defendant was careless in ascertaining the truth of its representations in that it knew or should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members would be overpaying for Products that contained substantially less milligrams per unit than advertised.
- 115. Plaintiff and Class Members were unaware of the falsity in Defendant's misrepresentations and omissions and, as a result, justifiably relied on them when making the decision to purchase the Products.

116. Plaintiff and Class Members would not have purchased the Products or paid as much for the Products if the true facts had been known.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Intentional Misrepresentation/Fraud

- 117. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates the allegations elsewhere in the Complaint as if set forth in full herein.
- 118. Defendant had a duty to disclose to Plaintiff and Class Members correct information as to the quality and characteristics of the Products because Defendant was in a superior position than Plaintiff and Class Members such that reliance by Plaintiff and Class Members was justified. Defendant possessed the skills and expertise to know the type of information that would influence a consumer's purchasing decision.
- 119. During the applicable Class period, Defendant intentionally misrepresented, omitted, and concealed from consumers material facts regarding the quality and characteristics of the Products, including the dosage amount of each capsule. These representations were material and were uniformly made.
- 120. As noted in detail above, these representations were false and misleading, as each unit of the Products contained only a fraction of the advertised dosage. Defendant made these misrepresentations with actual knowledge of their falsity and/or made them with fraudulent intent.
- 121. Defendant made such false and misleading statements and omissions with the intent to induce Plaintiff and Class Members to purchase the Products at a premium price, deprive Plaintiff and Class Members of property or otherwise causing injury, and thus, Defendant has committed fraud.
- 122. Defendant's deceptive or fraudulent intent is evidenced by motive and opportunity. Defendant knew that consumers would pay more for a product if they 27 28 believed they were receiving a higher dosage than that of competitors' lawfully labeled products. For that reason, Defendant misrepresented the dosage of its Products so that Defendant could realize greater profits. Defendant knew that consumers would place trust and confidence in its Products' claims and rely thereon in their purchases of the Products.

- 123. Plaintiff and the Class Members were unaware of the falsity in Defendant's misrepresentations and omissions and, as a result, justifiably relied on them when making the decision to purchase the Products.
- 124. As a proximate result of Defendant's intentional misrepresentations, Plaintiff and the Class were induced to purchase the Products at a premium.
- 125. Plaintiff and the Class Members would not have purchased the Products or paid as much for the Products if the true facts had been known.
- 126. As a result of their reliance, Plaintiff and Class Members were injured in an amount to be proven at trial, including, but not limited to, their lost benefit of the bargain and overpayment at the time of purchase.
- 127. Defendant's conduct was knowing, intentional, with malice, demonstrated a complete lack of care, and was in reckless disregard for the rights of Plaintiff and Class Members Plaintiff and Class Members are therefore entitled to an award of punitive damages.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Quasi-Contract/ Unjust Enrichment

- 128. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates the allegations elsewhere in the Complaint as if set forth in full herein.
- 129. As alleged in detail above, Defendant's false and misleading labelling caused Plaintiff and the Class to purchase the Products at a premium.
- 130. In this way, Defendant received a direct and unjust benefit, at Plaintiff and the Class's expense.

28

- 131. It would be unjust and inequitable for Defendant to retain the abovementioned benefits. For example, Defendant was only able to charge a premium for the Products by intentionally withholding information from Plaintiff, or otherwise misrepresenting the Products' qualities.
 - 132. Plaintiff and the Class seek restitution.

VII. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

- 133. Wherefore, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated, prays for judgment against Defendant as follows:
 - For an order certifying this action as a class action, appointing Plaintiff as the Class Representative, and appointing Plaintiff's Counsel as Class Counsel;
 - For an order declaring that Defendant's conduct violates the statutes and laws referenced herein, consistent with applicable law and pursuant to only those causes of action so permitted;
 - For an order awarding monetary compensation in the form of damages, restitution, and/or disgorgement to Plaintiff and the Class, consistent with permissible law and pursuant to only those causes of action so permitted;
 - For an order awarding punitive damages, statutory penalties, and/or monetary fines, consistent with permissible law and pursuant to only those causes of action so permitted;
 - For an order awarding attorneys' fees and costs, consistent with permissible law and pursuant to only those causes of action so permitted;
 - For an order awarding pre-judgment and post-judgment interest, consistent with permissible law and pursuant to only those causes of action so permitted; and
 - For such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
